Our Privacy Policy and Commitment to Protecting Your Privacy

We at Masters Insurance Limited value your business and thank you for choosing our brokerage as your insurance intermediary. As our client you trust us with your personal information and with that trust in mind we want you to be aware of our commitment to protect and keep confidential that information which you share with us in the course of doing business together.

How we collect, use and disclose your information

When we act as intermediaries to buy insurance for you, you share with us personal and pertinent information so that we may provide you with the best of products and services that you require. We will share this information with an insurance company to:

- 1) Communicate for you to the insurance company
- 2) Assess your application through the insurance companies underwriting and privacy practices.
- 3) Evaluate and analyze claims
- 4) Detect and prevent possible frauds
- 5) Analyze business results and rates from year to year
- 6) Act as required by laws of our governing bodies

Our Assurance

We DO NOT sell customer information to anyone nor do we share your information with organizations outside of our contracted insurance companies that would use it to contact you about their own different services or products.

All our employees who are granted access to customer/client records fully understand the need to keep this information confidential and protected. They know the intention and purposes of this information. This is emphatically communicated to our employees and also constantly reminded.

Our office has established physical and systems (electronic) safeguards to protect your information from unauthorized access or misuse.

Your Choice

At any time your implied consent (of your private information) may be withdrawn with reasonable notice in writing to our Privacy Officer or to anyone of our principal owners. Of course, the withdrawal of your consent will prevent us from providing you with the requested services (insurance).

We will occasionally use your information to inform you of new or different products that become available in the insurance industry. If you do not wish to receive this information you may ask us not to use it.

Stated above is a short synopsis of our Privacy Policy. For more information about our policies and procedures please call Max Ciccolini or any one of the principals of Masters Insurance Limited.
